

AICC 2010

Competition Rules

1. The AICC is hosted and organized by Koreografisk Center Archauz and is aimed at emerging choreographers within the field of contemporary dance – there is no age limit.
2. All participants, whether choreographer or dancer, should have a professional background and/or a professional training.
3. The AICC does not accept solo pieces nor pieces older than two years according to the application date. Each choreography is limited to a maximum of six dancers.
4. Applications must be written on the AICC application form and fully contain the content requested. The application must include a DVD of the work you wish to present at the competition or a DVD of two of your recent works (created within the last two years).
5. The duration of the work presented at the competition must be between 8 and 18 minutes.
6. The application and DVD deadline is: Wednesday, February 24, 2010 (postal stamp). Late applications will not be accepted. Send application and DVD to:
AICC 2010
Koreografisk Center Archauz
Valdemarsgade 1
DK - 8000 Aarhus C
Denmark
7. The jury will pre-select up to 14 works to participate in the AICC. All choreographers will be contacted with the results of the pre-selection no later than Friday, March 19, 2010. The choreographers selected for AICC 2010 must confirm their participation in the competition no later than Monday, April 12, 2010. The jury will only provide critique of the works appearing in the competition – no critique will be given for the pre-selection. The decision of the jury is final.
9. If any competitor is related to, or is a student or company member of, a jury member, the chair of the jury (Archauz' artistic director, Jens Bjerregaard) must be notified.
10. Choreographers and dancers must (without fee) be available for rehearsals/lighting, press-related events, and performances from 9am on Thursday, June 10, 2010, until the end of the competition on Saturday, June 12, 2010.
11. The AICC will supply all room and board in Aarhus. The AICC does not cover travel expenses.

AICC 2010

Technical Data

The competition will take place in the A1 Theatre of Archauz. This is a black box theatre with the following dimensions and flooring.

- Size of the stage (dance floor): 10 m x 10 m
- Floor material : black vinyl

Lighting and sound details and drawings will be provided after the pre-selection process is complete. Note that Archauz technicians will operate light and sound during rehearsals and the final showing.

